SHED/MINI-BARN REQUIREMENTS

Sec. 731-219 Accessory Uses.

1. Shall not be located closer to any front or side lot line than the required minimum front and side yard setbacks of the dwelling district, or, in the case of a front yard, the established front yard setback on the lot, whichever is greater.
2. In D-A, D-S, D-1, D-2, D-3, D-4, D-5, D-5II and D-8 dwelling districts shall not be located closer to any rear lot line than five (5) feet.
3. Shall comply with the minimum side yard requirements of the district independently of the side yards established by the primary building.
4. Shall not be permitted on a lot prior to the erection of the primary building.
5. Shall not encroach upon, as the primary building shall not encroach upon, any platted easement.
6. Accessory uses shall be customarily incidental, accessory and subordinate to, and commonly associated with the operation of the primary use of the lot.

7. Shall be operated and maintained under the same ownership and on the same building lot as the primary use.
8. Shall be subordinate in area, bulk, extent, and purpose to the primary use of the building served. The height of an accessory structure shall be less than or equal to that of the primary structure. The total square footage of all accessory buildings on a building lot shall not exceed seventy-five (75) percent of the main floor area of the primary building, except that a detached garage, which is the only accessory building on the lot, may equal the maximum dimensions of 24 by 30 feet provided that the total square footage of the garage is less than or equal to the floor area of the primary building.

- Mini-barns under 120 square feet in size and not on a permanent foundation need a preliminary review to ensure the mini-barn is not located in an easement or setback.
- Mini-barns 120 square feet in size and not on a permanent foundation will need a Storm water Drainage permit and an Improvement Location Permit (ILP).
- Mini-barns greater than 120 square feet or on a permanent foundation will need a Storm water Drainage permit, an Improvement Location Permit (ILP), and a Structural permit.
- Mini-barns over 200 square feet must be on a permanent foundation in order to comply with Indiana Residential Code.

Please note - Any structure placed on a permanent foundation, regardless of size, will require permits.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

- Q: I want to build a shed in my yard. Do I need to obtain a permit?
- A: Any structure that measures 120 square feet or larger will require an Improvement Location Permit (ILP) prior to being placed on the property. Additionally, any structure that is placed on a permanent foundation, regardless of its size, will require a permit. Further, any structure that measures 200 square feet or more must be on a permanent foundation.
- Q: Can I place a shed anywhere on my property?
- A: No shed may be located anywhere in your front yard that is beyond the established building line of your house; any yard that abuts a public street is considered a front yard. Homes on corner lots will have two front yards and two established building lines. Further, the structure shall not be located in the required side yard setback established by its Dwelling District, nor be located within 5 feet of the rear yard lot line.
- Q: I live in a historical district, do I need prior approval to build a shed?
- A: You will need to apply for a Certificate of Appropriateness from the Indianapolis Historical Preservation Commission (IHPC) at (317) 327-4406.
- Q: I own a vacant lot in a different part of the city. Can I build a shed on it and use it for storage of my belongings?
- A: No shed may be placed on a lot prior to the construction of a primary structure.
